Waverly, Va. June 6.—The most important of the June weddings of this section was solemnized in Christ Church this afternoon at 4:50 o'clock, when Miss Sally Fleetwood, daughter of P. Fleetwood, of Waverly, was married to Walter Taylor Daniel, of Waverly.

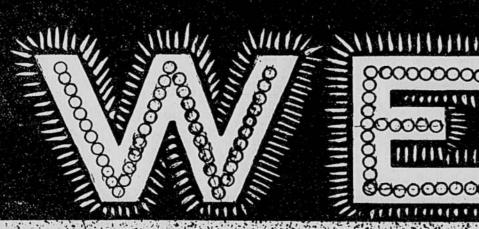

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Flournoy Bouldin, rector of the church, in the presence of a large audience. The wedding music was rendered by Miss Grace West, accompanied by E. J. Mace with the violin. The little chapel was profusely decorated in daisies and ferns and lighted candles. At the appointed hour the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, entered the church with her sister, Mrs. Edward N. Butr, dame of honor, and they were met at the alter by the groom and his best man. Colonel Robert W. Arnold, of Waverly. Her wedding gown was of violet slik crepe trimmed with Venetian lace. She wore a picture hat with violet plumes and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilles of the valley.

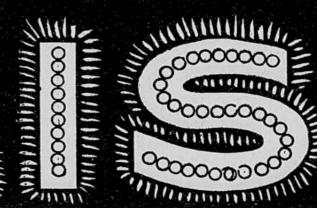

The dame of honor was gowned in white silk crepe with trimmings of pearl, and wore a picture hat with white plumes and carried a bouquet of lavendar sweet peas.

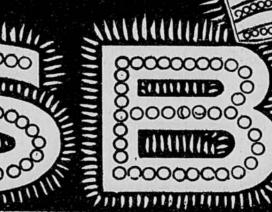

The bride was proceeded by her two little nelees, Miss Arnold Fleetwood, as flower girl, carrying a basket of white sweet peas, and little Miss Fleetwood and Holt Fleetwood, all of Waverly.
